

Founded in 1938, the Maine Council of Churches is an ecumenical coalition of seven member denominations and two associate member churches who together represent 437 congregations with 55,000 members across the state. Our mission is to inspire and equip people within, through and beyond the church to unite in building a culture of justice, compassion, and peace.

You can learn more about MCC on our website, Facebook, Instagram and YouTube.

You can watch a recording of our recent book event, co-hosted with The BTS Center, “The 7 Deadly Sins of White Christian Nationalism,” featuring author Carter Heyward, on our YouTube channel.

Coming up on October 15, in observance of LGBTQ+ History Month, MCC is proud to be cosponsoring:
